

ABOUT THE PRESENTER:

Dora J. Dome, Esquire, has practiced Education Law for over 20 years, primarily in the areas of student issues and special education. She graduated from the University of Hawaii, Richardson School of Law (J.D.), and from the University of California, Los Angeles (B.A.).

Ms. Dome currently provides legal representation to school districts. She has developed and conducted trainings for numerous school districts and school boards in the areas of student diversity and equity, student and special education discipline, harassment/discrimination, bullying, special education, and many more. Her first book, Student Discipline, Special Education Discipline, Anti-Bullying, and Other Relevant Student Issues: A Guide for Practitioners, has been described as a “must-have” for anyone seeking to understand student discipline and bullying.

Legal Aspects of 504 and Distance Learning

The San Mateo County Office of Education (SMCOE) welcomes Dora Dome, Esquire, who will present an online workshop to assist school districts on the legal aspects of 504s and distance learning. She will discuss what’s required, the eligibility process, and how to think about accommodations for students in relation to Section 504 in this uncertain time.

For San Mateo County educators
$50 per participant

Monday, Sept. 28
9 AM - 12 PM

Registration:

504distancelearning2.eventbrite.com

(A Zoom link will be provided after registration)

SAN MATEO
COUNTY
OFFICE OF EDUCATION