

ANNOUNCING:

The highly - anticipated three new books from author
DORA DOME, ESQ.
in her education series: Tools For The Trade

A Teachers Guide To Student Discipline In California K-12 Schools

A comprehensive discipline binder to support teachers in understanding how to implement student discipline laws to address problematic student behaviors

"Dora Dome has been my "go to" attorney for student issues relating to school discipline, records, court orders, and harassment/bullying for close to ten years. Her experience, insight, and guidance has consistently proven invaluable. I have also found her trainings to be some of the most practical and relevant learning opportunities of my career."

Chris Dowler
Deputy Director of Student Support Services
San Luis Coastal Unified School District

A school Board member's/ Administrative Panel's Guide to student discipline and Expulsions in California Schools

A resource to help school boards and administrative panels navigate the expulsion process and ensure that they are providing due process to the students and their families

"A must-read for all educators - new as well as experienced teachers, counselors, and administrators."

Delores B. Lindsey & Randall B. Lindsey

Understanding Section 504 Of The Rehabilitation Act Of 1973: A Procedural Guide For K-12 School Administrators and Support Staff

A step-by-step guide on how to navigate the Section 504 process to ensure school compliance and that the needs of the children are met

"Ms. Dome has the unique ability to not only identify relevant and complicated topics in education, but clearly breaks them down to where any educator can understand and implement. Rarely do I finish a book in one sitting; however, within the first minute of starting the book, I knew that Ms. Dome once again knocked it out of the park."

Scott Meyer
Director of Behavior Intervention & Student Services, Folsom-Cordova USD

Dora J. Dome has practiced Education Law for over 23 years, primarily in the areas of student issues and special education. She currently provides legal representation to school districts on student issues and develops and conducts professional development trainings for district staff that focus on Bullying and Legal Compliance, viewed through an Equity Lens, in a proactive effort to build staff capacity to address the changing needs of their students.

Available on Amazon.com in both paperback and Kindle
Inquiries: www.doradomelaw.com • dora@doradomelaw.com

